

SOLID BRASS AND HARDENED STEEL

The ABUS 713 brass padlocks consist of a solid brass body and hardened steel shackle.

These padlocks incorporate a five-pin cylinder for security purposes and have been optimised for low to medium security applications. The ABUS range of 713 brass padlocks is available in various sizes with different shackle lengths. As standard, these padlocks come with different keys; however, twin pairs with random keyed alike models are also available.
